INTRODUCTION

Downtown London staff, boards, civic and community stakeholders and the authors of this strategic report came together to envision the future for Downtown London recognizing the significant impact the COVID-19 pandemic has had on our friends and neighbours who live, work and do business in London’s downtown core. This powerful partnership is based on a common sense of purpose, love of our downtown community and a desire to build a downtown London that is beacon for those seeking a better, brighter future.

Downtown London, including the London Downtown Business Association (LDBA) and MainStreet London (MSL), looked upon their task of recovery and renewal as a unique opportunity to take a bold, comprehensive and dynamic examination of our beloved downtown in a more holistic manner.

This comprehensive and far-reaching planning process was overseen by the boards of directors of the LDBA and MSL and an advisory committee consisting of key community stakeholders including city of London staff, Council, business members, community partners and Downtown London staff. Over 2,700 people contributed to the strategy development through interviews, surveys and focus groups, offering their valuable insights, hopes and aspirations for the future of the downtown.

We believe Downtown London Re-Imagined is an exciting new approach to community and economic development which builds on past successes, identifies solutions to new and ongoing challenges and maps out an exciting and inspiring future over the next five years, and beyond.
DOWNTOWN LONDON IS COMMITTED TO REFLECTING AND CELEBRATING DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION WITH OUR MEMBERS AND THE COMMUNITIES WE SERVE.
ABOUT DOWNTOWN LONDON

Downtown London is made up of two complementary non-profit organizations. The London Downtown Business Association (LDBA), governed by 13 volunteer board members drawn from the organization’s membership, has the fiduciary and governance responsibilities for the organization. MainStreet London (MSL), with 11 volunteer board members, is a separate non-profit corporation focused on downtown revitalization and attraction initiatives and administering financial incentives to members including both grants and loans.

Downtown London is the leading voice of the downtown business community and operates as the hub of a network of partners and stakeholders that contribute to the entirety of the downtown experience. This interdependent and collegial relationship includes the City of London, event and tourism operators, local colleges and universities, community builders such as London Economic Development Corporation (LED), Small Business Enterprise Centre, Tech Alliance, London Chamber of Commerce, Tourism London, developers, property owners, SME business owners, and large corporate organizations.

Downtown London Re-imagined is an evolution in both the LDBA and MainStreet London’s commitment to providing consistent and focused leadership. It was developed to ensure Downtown London’s priorities and actions are aligned with its vision and mission, not least of which include sustainability, social and cultural diversity as key considerations in Downtown London’s operations, programs and governance.
